Authenticity Declaration

For all internal assessment for the purpose of awarding credits on the National Qualifications Framework (NQF) the school must be assured that the work has been processed and produced by the students themselves.

Some tasks require students to gather information from a variety of sources and this increases the potential for work to be copied, produced with the unacknowledged assistance of someone else, borrowed from a student from a previous year group, photocopied from a print reference, copied digitally or downloaded from the internet. The Authenticity Policy is published in the student handbook and is accessible on RangiLife.

To maintain the credibility of the school's internal moderation system for the award of NQF credits, we ask parents/caregivers and students to sign a declaration that the work produced for internal assessment this year follows the specified requirements of the tasks with reference to authenticity issues.

We ask you to sign this declaration annually to cover all internally assessed work throughout this year.

I declare that the work I submit for NQF (including NCEA) credits this year will meet the authenticity requirements of each assessment task.
